

Festival of Balloons

Photo Information

Festival of Balloons – San Giorgio e il Drago

Balloons become larger-than-life works of art at the Festival of Balloons! Consisting of about 20,000 balloons, this first place Large Sculpture at the World Balloon Convention 2010 was a reinterpretation of the famous Italian painting. Created by Team Italy, led by Federico Onida, CBA, of Balloon Express Shop in Cagliari, Italy. Photo courtesy of Pioneer® Balloon Company.

Festival of Balloons – Enchantment Entrance

Experience the wonder of balloons as soon as you arrive at the Festival. This magical entrance, featuring towering balloon “trees” and massive “gates,” welcomed guests to the Festival of Balloons 2010. Created by Jim Skistimas, CBA, of Balloon House Design Studio in Flower Mound, TX, USA. Photo courtesy of Pioneer® Balloon Company.

Festival of Balloons – Geisha

You won't believe your eyes when you see beautiful characters made completely out of balloons! The intricate techniques and attention to detail on sculptures like these will astound and delight Festival attendees. Created by Masako Nomura, CBA, of FuwaFuwa Co., Ltd. in Okayama, Japan, and team. Photo courtesy of Pioneer® Balloon Company.

Festival of Balloons – Fashion

Think balloons are just for bouquets? Think again! Balloon fashion is the next big thing hitting the runways. You can see incredible dresses like these up close and in person at the Festival of Balloons. Created by Niko Fric, CBA, of Magic d.o.o. in Sevnica, Slovenia.
